

SAMSUNG

DB22D COMMERCIAL LED LFD DISPLAY

EASILY INSTALLED, EASILY MANAGED, EASILY NOTICED

WITH BUILT-IN MEDIA PLAYER AND SOFTWARE, IT'S A FULLY EMBEDDED SIGNAGE SOLUTION

Samsung makes it easy to be impactful in a small size. The DB22D 22" commercial display features internal media player functionality (SoC), so you can easily display content with no external PC required. You can control it all through RS232 or LAN, and Samsung MagicInfo software gives you a simple UI. The built-in power supply offers yet another advantage over desktop monitors. Graphic-heavy content? Not a problem with the quad-core processor. And of course, thanks to the high-resolution HD graphics Samsung is known for, every message will be sharp, clear and worthy of your image.

KEY FEATURES

Easy Content Control

The Samsung SMART Signage platform eliminates the need for an external media player. With Samsung MagicInfo™ content management software, selecting and scheduling software is easier than ever. And it's all easily controlled via RS232 or LAN.

Enhanced System-on-Chip Performance with Quad-Core CPU

Powered by a System-on-Chip semiconductor and quad-core CPU, Samsung's Smart Signage Platform reduces TCO for digital signage deployments, providing savings in hardware, installation and operating costs.

Reliable 16/7 Operation

Samsung commercial displays are designed from the chassis up to deliver the highest quality image with exceptional reliability. You can count on 16/7 run times, and we back it up with a 3-year onsite commercial warranty.

1920 x 1080 High Definition

The DB22D display delivers sharp, stunning images with 1920 x 1080 Full HD resolution. Images are crisp, type is sharp and highly legible.

Built-In Wi-Fi

In addition to HDMI, USB and D-Sub (analog) connectivity, the built-in Wi-Fi lets you easily share content from a mobile device. And with Wi-Fi control of content, you can eliminate LAN cables, simplifying installation.

New Industrial Design

A sleek, stylish new look features our new hidden logo tag, for a clean, sophisticated installation.
