SMALL WONDER.

AKG K 317 semi-open headphones with their lanyard design are no bigger or heavier than conventional ear buds, but they produce powerful, undistorted sound. Their exceptional bass response rivals that of much larger on-ear headphone designs. You don't have to sacrifice comfort or portability to experience the kind of performance professionals have expected from AKG products for more than 60 years – K 317 puts it in your pocket. Carry them, wherever you are.
